Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
FLINT, Mich. — Michigan Gov. George Romney, clarifying his statement Sunday in which he appeared to be calling for enactment of a statewide open occupancy law, said it was:
"A slip of the tongue. We've got open housing if the state constitution and that's more fundamental than doing it by statute."

NEW YORK — Mrs. Florence Kennedy, attorney for Negro militant leader H. Rap Brown, commenting on his backers' attempts to raise $25,000 bail to get Brown out of jail where he is being held on a weapons charge:
"We have the necessary cash."

WASHINGTON — Dr. Nathan Cohen, professor at the University of California at Los Angeles, testifying before the Senate Judiciary Committee on the cause of social disorders:
"I don't think integration is the name of the game any more. They (Negroes) are more interested in job opportunity, security and housing."

HONG KONG — Provincial Kweichow Radio in Communist
China, denouncing anti-Mao elements fighting bloody battles with pro-Mao Red Guards:
"They even burned three Red Guards to death."

A Bible Thought For Today

I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me. — Galatians 2:20.
Many regard Paul as the greatest mortal man, greatest certainly in influence. The secret was that Christ ruled in his life.

Almanac

by United Press International

Today is Tuesday, Aug. 22, the 234th day of 1967 with 131 to follow.

The moon is between the full stage and last quarter.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Mars.

Born on this day in 1867 was Charles Francis Jenkins, American physicist in the field of aviation.

In 1891, the American yacht "America," past the British craft "Audrey" off Coves, England, and won the silver trophy which since has carried its name.

In 1941, the Mona Lisa was stolen from the Louvre museum in Paris. It was recovered Dec. 10.

In 1941, Nazi troops advanced to the outskirts of Leningrad in Russia.

In 1960, President Eisenhower offered to host American nuclear testing for one year if Russia would do the same.

A thought for the day — French writer Victor Hugo once said: "A compliment is something like a kiss through a veil."

Some Slowdown Expected In First Job

By PATRICK MCCORMACK

NEW YORK 22 — Jane Egghead sailed through college, and through graduate school. Comfortable in seven-league boots, she landed her first job and expects to continue, one rapid stride after the other, up the mountain marked success.

But what happened? Either she came up against a stone wall or found her ascent slowed by pitfalls. Now most Jane Eggheads don't like stone walls and they hate crawling across a plateau.

The facts, though, are that they've got to expect a certain amount of slowing down when they plunge into career now.

Young career women participating in the 33rd annual convention of the National Federation of a Business and Professional Women's Clubs made these points in a survey.

They included young lawyers, newspaper writers and editors, teachers, social workers, management consultants, medical types.

They agreed that being female, young career women today, why do you say that, and how can the problem be solved.

A typical response was that by a Salt Lake City, Utah, attorney, 28, who said the major problem was "being accepted as a 'working woman' rather than as a woman who also works."

The law lady said she based her answer on personal experience. "I am seen as an attractive female—men do not get beyond to the mind."

The problem will be solved slowly, she hopes, "with a feminine but professional coupling of the rest of society until society is used to the truth."

Child Confused by 'Filthy Book'

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I was out at my father's car the other day when I saw a paperback book on the floor, face down. I picked it up and without looking at the front, and started reading it. It was FILTHY! I was doing an errand for my father at the time. I went back into the house as if nothing happened.

Abby, I can't look at my father without almost hating him. Should I tell my mother? I have tried to reason with myself, but it doesn't work. What should I do? You are the only one I can turn to. Please answer soon as I've worried myself nearly sick.

WORRIED GIRL
DEAR (WORRIED): You don't say how old you are, but from your handwriting I would guess your age to be about 12 or 13. First, let me explain that just because you judge a book to be "filthy," doesn't necessarily mean that it is. Even the Supreme Court cannot agree on that. (By some standards, parts of the Bible can be considered "filthy.")

Don't tell your mother. Don't "hate" your father. And remember that just as one swallow doesn't make a summer neither does one book reflect one's moral standards or literary taste.

DEAR ABBY: Usually I agree with your views, but this is too much. I know you, Dear Abby: "A wife is responsible for keeping her husband's clothes in shape." This is absolutely Victorian. If he isn't helping why can't he keep his own clothes in shape?

Perhaps if the mail had been taught to do things for himself as a boy, instead of looking to his mother for what service, the problem wouldn't be present in his adult life.

The only service a wife or mother OWES are those services the family cannot perform for themselves. Anything else she does is a gift of love, not a responsibility.

DEAR BUSY: I can't think of ANYTHING a family cannot do

Household Hints

Tuffed Fries International
Light-colored woodwork comes clean at first wash if sponged in a solution of three tablespoons of sal soda concentrated per bucket of warm water.

Two thick coats of paint leaves a wrinkled finish. This problem can be eliminated by brushing or rolling the paint thoroughly.

Strolling the beach barefoot is supposed to be good for the feet and legs. For comfortable feet, rub the tender soles lightly with petroleum jelly.

The right paint brush will lighten work. If you plan to apply water based paint to a large area, a cellulose brush with very long, elastic hog bristles will save time and energy. For applying oil-base paint, use a brush with flat or chisel shaped enamel and varnish brushes. Make sure any brush you use is of the best quality.

It has been estimated that by 1970 there will be some degree of stretch in almost all apparel fabrics.

A laminated fabric has a backing of polyurethane foam. A single laminate has fabric on one side of the foam, while a double laminate — sometimes called a foam sandwich — has fabric on both sides of the foam.

ACCUSED of attempting to smuggle gold out of England, Francis (Dipit) Waterman (above), 45, one-time British motorcycle glomboy, and his strawberry blonde girl friend, Avril Beatrice Friston, 38, were arrested at Newhaven, England. Gold ingots were found hidden in the chassis of their car as they waited to board the cross-channel ferry to Dieppe, France.

Add to Your Window

Extend Its Dimensions And Its Decorative Appeal

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

DON'T just dress a window — add to it! This is a trick that can pay practical as well as decorative dividends.

What to add? Here are some suggestions:

A Single Shelf: Extend the window with a shelf that can serve as a dressing table, a desk or a display spot for books or bric-a-brac.

A Box: An inside window box can be a delightful addition to a room. Use it to show off leafy greenery, African violets or colorful artificial flowers.

A Tank: Light that comes through a window can highlight a fish tank and play up the colors of a tropical fish collection.

A Seat: Space permitting, a built-in window seat is a nice addition, especially if it's designed with a roomy interior that can be put to storage uses.

A Series Of Shelves: Line the window, top to bottom, with glass shelves, then use them to display plants or a collection of glass vases, pitchers or knickknacks.

A Plywood Frame: Change the shape and/or the look of a window with a plywood frame. Pictured today, for example, is a boy's room with a window that has been turned into a "sentry box" via the addition of a plywood frame and a garden gate.

WINDOW BOX moves inside to add charm to room by Shirley Regendahl. Black ball fringe and tasseled dress up shade.

PINK EYELET gingham threaded with black ribbon makes rows of interest on window shade. Shelf is used as vanity.

TWO ROWS of pom-decor frame stripe trim on shade. Sentry box was made with plywood frame and garden gate.

Guidance Helps Unwed Teen-Age Mothers-To-Be, Say Girls At San Francisco Home

By RODNEY C'ILFOIL

United Press International SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Peggy is an extraordinarily pretty girl. She is poised and she's smart. She could be your daughter, your niece, your sister, or the girl next door. And she's like 325,000 other young women in the United States this year. Peggy is pregnant out of wedlock.

"When I first started feeding my baby move," she says, "I used to cry myself to sleep. I used to say 'it's not going to be mine'."

Peggy is one of nearly 50 girls currently living in the Florence Crittenton Home of San Francisco to await the birth of their babies. All are at least seven months pregnant. The Crittenton Home, a United Crusade agency, gave residents laid care last year to more than 200 unwed mothers and helped hundreds of others for whom no space was available with urgent, needed counsel and planning. Recently it de pleted most of its shelter expansion to finance a $50,000 expansion project so it can care for even more girls.

There are 47 Crittenton Homes in the United States — pitifully few to meet a desperate social need.

Peggy, Joan, Ann and Marie — they're in their late teens — appeared recently before a roomful of women who are members of Florence Crittenton Circles and Auxiliaries in Northern California. About 18 groups of these women engage in fund-raising and direct service to the Home. Every year they hold a workshop to exchange ideas.

The volunteers listened as the Home's executive director, Jean Bolton, explained the urgency of help to an unwed mother.

"It is a crisis, believe me," explained Miss Bolton, "a crisis for society, for the girl and for her family."

Miss Bolton turned to the girls sitting on the platform with her. She skillfully led them into a description of their lives at the Home.

"She asked Ann, what she expected to find before she entered the Crittenton Home.

"Well, I was pretty scared," Ann said. "I thought the girls would be the kind you'd find running around the streets. I was quite surprised. They weren't at all 'trampy.'"

"The hardest thing facing an unwed mother? There are many, but without question the most important is whether to keep the baby or to relinquish it for adoption."

"I asked myself," said Marie, "what kind of a parent do I want to be? It's very different to have a child when you don't have someone else to help you. You have to be the kind of parent the child deserves if you're not married."

Peggy said it took many sessions with her counselor before she could make up her mind. When she did, it was to relinquish.

"My counselor made me look into myself and think things through," she said. "I used to cry. I felt she was picking on me. I now realize she was forcing me to consider things from every possible light . . . and to make my own decision."

Ann said, "The value of being in a home like Florence Crittenton is that you are away from the pressure of your own family. You make your own decision about your baby."

As for Roberta: "I found out things about myself I didn't know before . . . what I am capable of . . . how I can make up my own mind . . . and how mature I really am."

"Wouldn't it be easier if someone just told you to relinquish?" asked Miss Bolton.

"It certainly would," said Joan. "But I have to live the rest of my life knowing I made the decision — and that it was the right one for my baby."

Peggy recalled one girl who decided to keep her baby. She returned to the Home to get her things and asked Peggy to look after the infant for a few minutes.

"Then I realized suddenly how much care and constant attention a baby needs," she said. "Could I work and leave my baby all day with a sitter? And I began thinking of 15 years from now when my child would begin going through adolescence. If I had a boy, I wouldn't want to face that alone . . . not without his father to help."

Hard as it is the experience of having a baby out of wedlock, have the girls learned anything of value from it?

"I could help my children later in life," said Marie, "to make them realize the responsibility of becoming a parent, and especially to make my son realize what it means to become a father. Yes, I think I'll be a better parent."

Ann said, "I have a 16-year-old brother and I know what pressures he is under. I hope my experience is helping him."

The other two girls were too overcome to speak.

Mrs. Autry Farmer Hostess For Faith Doran Circle Meet

Mrs. Autry Farmer opened her home on Wells Boulevard for the meeting of the Faith Doran Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held on Tuesday, August 15, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

"Sciences and Christian Faith" was the subject of the very interesting and informative program presented by the leader, Mrs. R. A. Johnson.

The scripture reading from the 19th chapter of Psalms was by Mrs. L. R. Putnam. Mrs. Bun Swann, vice-chairman, presided in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. P. E. Crawford, who is out of town. Mrs. Isaac Clanton read the minutes and called the roll. Names of sunshine friends were given and it was announced the circle will visit the Convalescent and Nursing homes in September. New program books were given.

The circle will have a hot sale in the social hall of the church on Friday afternoon, August 25, and all-day Saturday, August 26. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dumas, Mrs. George Smith, to the members and two visitors, Mrs. Matt Sparkman and Mrs. John T. Ryan.

Mr. & Mrs. Ellis Honored At Party At Moffett Home

A group of friends entertained with a potluck supper and party on Saturday evening at the home of William Moffett, Paducah, Mo.

The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Ellis who are leaving soon to make their home in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis were presented with a silver tray from the group.

After the delicious supper was served, dancing was enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Othman, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Klapp, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Tammey Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones, Mr. Joyce Smith of Indianapolis, Ind., sister of Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Pearl Moffett, and the host, William Moffett.

Southside Is Scene Of Luncheon Friday

Miss Sheri Jones entertained with bridesmaids luncheon on Friday, August 18, at the Southside Restaurant, Murray.

The bride-to-be presented each of her attendants for her wedding on August 19 with a silver charm. Covers were laid for Miss Brenda Duncan, Miss Beverly Soti, Miss Nanette Solomon, Miss Sharon Wilson, Miss Mary Ann Murphy, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. Charlie McKee, Miss Karen McKee, and the hostess.

Mrs. Roger Darrell Rowlett

Miss Sharon Ann McClure Exchanges Vows With Roger Darrell Rowlett In Beautiful Ceremony At The First Baptist Church

The sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Murray was the setting for the wedding of Miss Sharon Ann McClure and Roger Darrell Rowlett on Saturday, August 12, at eight o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McClure of Murray. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowlett of Buchanan, Tenn.

Dr. H. C. O'Neil, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated for the wedding by Mrs. Sharrill Evermyer who used seven branched candelabra holding burning tapers with hickory and white satin trim. Large standing baskets of white gladioli were used.

The pews were marked with white satin roses with fern green.

Doris and Morris Rowlett, twin brothers of the groom, lit the candles. The program of musical music was presented by Miss Lillian Wald, organist, and Robert Bear, soloist. Selections by Miss Walters were "Liebestraum" by Liszt and "O Sublime Evening Star" by Wagner. Mr. Bear sang "O Perfect Love" by Busby and "The Ring" by Schumann. The organist played "The Flower of Love" by Christianson. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her brother, Charles Steven McClure, the bride was lovely in her full length gown of white peau de soie and chivalry lace fashioned with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice, and three quarter length bell sleeves of lace. Her fingertip veil was also of lace and fell from a crown of pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses accented with pink trim and deep green velvet leaves. Miss Julia Christman was the maid of honor. She wore a simple full length gown of blue peau de soie and her pillbox headpiece was of blue peau de soie and tulle. She carried two happiness roses with matching streamers and green velvet leaves.

The bridesmaids were Miss Don Vaughn, Mrs. Richard Grogan, Miss Alice Lemons, and Miss Marilyn Wiehert. Their gowns and headpieces were identical to that of the maid of honor, and they carried single happiness roses accented with matching streamers and green velvet leaves.

Miss Twila Vaughn, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a lovely blue dress trimmed in white lace and carried a white beaded basket filled with red happiness roses, tulle, and leather leaf fern with red streamers.

The ringbearer was Tony McClure, cousin of the bride. The bestman was Gary Rice, roommate of the groom at the University of Tennessee, Martin. Groomsmen were Donald Wheeler, Kenneth Neil Grogan, Ray Adams, and David Rowlett.

Mr. C. V. Vaughn of Buchanan, Tenn., is the bride's maternal grandfather, and Mrs. Fred McClure of Murray, is her paternal grandmother. They were both attired in navy ensembles with matching accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. John Rowlett, wore an A-line dress of pink silk brocade with matching accessories. Both grandmothers and the groom's mother wore corsages of red roses and matching satin trim.

Guests at the church were registered by Mrs. D. B. Thompson, the groom's aunt.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Wisheart on Woodlawn Avenue, Murray.

The honored couple and guests were served by Mrs. Charles Vaughn and Mrs. J. D. McClure from the dining table beautifully arranged with pink snapdragons and red happiness roses in an antique crystal cove, a herbloom of Grandmother McClure.

The four tiered wedding cake, edged with red roses and leather leaf fern, was topped with a bridal nosegay of red roses and satin trim, flanked by crystal and

Mrs. Chrisman Is Leader At Mason's Chapel WSCS Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Mason's Chapel Methodist Church met at the church for its regular meeting Wednesday, August 16, at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Reuben Chrisman was in charge of the program entitled "The Christian and Culture". The purpose of the program was to make the Christian faith relevant to today's setting and expose superstitions that mask as true religion and to accept man's vast widening of scientific knowledge as a part of his Christian faith.

Mrs. Frank Coles read the scripture from the twelfth chapter of Romans and led in prayer.

Others taking part in the program were Mrs. Douglas Shumaker and Mrs. Brent Newport. The business session was held prior to the program and it was announced that the leadership training session would be held the fourth Sunday evening in August.

Mrs. Nina Craig said she planned to attend the School of Christian Missions at Jackson, Tenn., August 21-25.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Brent Newport and Mrs. Oren Chrisman.

Miss Sheri Jones Honored At Tea At The Solomon Home

Mrs. W. H. Solomon, Jr., and Miss Nanette Solomon entertained with a tea in honor of Miss Sheri Jones, August 19th at the home of Frank David McKee.

The tea was held on Thursday, August 17, from two to four o'clock in the afternoon at the Solomon home on Olive Street.

Receiving the guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. James Jones of Seabrook, Tenn., her mother-in-law to be, Mrs. Charlie McKee of Milan, Tenn., and her maid of honor to be, Miss Brenda Duncan, roommate of the honoree at Murray State University.

The bride-elect chose to wear from her trousseau a pink shift with bell sleeves and her bridesmaid gift corsage was of full roses. Her mother wore a black dress and her mother-in-law to be was attired in a blue dress. Both had corsages of yellow daisies.

The beautifully appointed table was overlaid with an aqua linen cloth, and centered with an arrangement of yellow and white full roses. Silver appointments were used.

Serving at the punch bowl were Miss Mary Kay Russell and Miss Vickie Jones, a security system of the honoree. Miss Solomon is also a sorority sister of Miss Jones.

Plans Completed By Miss Teitloff For Her Sunday Wedding

Miss Rebecca Darlene Teitloff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Teitloff of Murray, has completed plans for her wedding to John Patrick Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brennan of Cayce, S.C.

The wedding will take place on Sunday, August 27, at three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon at the Immanuel Lutheran Church. Rev. Stephen Mank will be the minister.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at church. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the wedding and the reception.

silver candlesticks with pink spiral tapers.

Adorning the coffee table and piano in the living room were arrangements of white gladioli and tuberoses in crystal containers.

Gifts from numerous friends and relatives were displayed.

After a wedding trip to the Great Smoky Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Rowlett will reside in Martin, Tenn., where they will attend the University of Tennessee this fall. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Buchanan High School. Mrs. Rowlett attended Murray State University for two years and will be a junior majoring in music. Mr. Rowlett will be a senior majoring in education. He will be editor of the university newspaper, The Voleto, for the second consecutive year.

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowlett, entertained the bridal party with a rehearsal dinner on Friday evening, August 11. Dinner was served at Bull Durham's Restaurant on Kentucky Lake. The bride couple presented gifts to their attendants.

Miss Linda Kay Thomas Becomes The Bride Of Ronald E. Jones In Church Ceremony

Miss Linda Kay Thomas became the bride of Ronald E. Jones at seven o'clock in the evening in the McClure Chapel of the First Methodist Church, Ardmore, Oklahoma.

Dr. Edwin W. Parker, assisted by Mr. D. Allen Polen, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thomas, 1118 Birch Street, Ardmore, Oklahoma. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones, Waldrop Drive, Murray.

Arrangements of fern, gladioli, mums, and greenery decorated the chapel.

Mrs. Lee Woodside played organ wedding music including the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Wedding March for the processional and the recessional. She also accompanied Mrs. Roger Slaught as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk organza over peau de soie designed with a fitted peau-de-soie. The ivory cage had a bateau neckline detailed with lace appliques embroidered in seed pearls. It featured long sleeves accented with ivory satin ribbons and lace scallops at the wrist.

The full length gown had a wide band of lace under satin ribbon at the hemline with scalloped edge. The detachable full chapel train was attached under a fabric bow at the neckline.

A pearl train held her four tiered veil of ivory silk illusion. Her flowers were gardenias with cascading ribbons.

Miss Georgianne Chapman of Oklahoma City was the maid of honor. She wore a formal mid-length blue peau de soie gown in graceful A-line styling with matching accessories and a cascade of white cascade.

Mrs. Jackie Jones of Murray, sister-in-law of the groom, was the matron of honor, and her ensemble was identical to the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Chapman of Oklahoma City and Miss Cathy Ingram of Ardmore. Their gowns were identical to the honor attendants.

Miss Lisa Ingram was the flower girl and her gown matched the other attendants and she carried a basket of white rose petals.

All the attendants wore "Praying Hands" necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Jackie Jones of Murray, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Steve Paschall and Jerry M. Colley. David Paschall was the ringbearer.

The guest book was kept by Jim Morris.

Mrs. Thomas, the bride's mother, wore a beige two piece dress with beige accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a pale pink lacy linen two piece dress with hot pink accessories. Both wore corsages of white roses.

After the wedding the reception was held in the parlor of the church.

The bride's beautifully appointed table was centered with the wedding cake and a floral arrangement flanked by white tapers. Silver appointments were used.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Gerald Wilkins, Mrs. Paul Paschall, Mrs. John Harrell, and Mrs. Howard Masterson.

The couple is now at home in Murray where the groom is a member of the Murray Police Department.

Rehearsal Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of Murray, parents of the groom, entertained with a rehearsal dinner at the Country Club at Ardmore.

Covers were laid for twenty-eight persons.

Personals

Miss Diana Gail Harrison spent last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Meadows of Jackson, Tenn. She was accompanied home by two of her cousins, Jimmy and Allen Meadows.

Mrs. Beaton Euple Wilson of Murray Route One has been a patient at the Western Baptist Hospital, Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Neale and daughter, Cindy, of Dearborn, Mich., have been the guests of her mother, Mrs. Hallett Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lash and children, Susan, Mark, and Todd, left Monday for their home in Paducah, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Gusie Geurin, and his father, Guy Lash and family. The Ted Lash family and Mrs. Geurin spent two weeks vacationing in points in Florida returning to Murray on Saturday.

They visited Mrs. Geurin's sister, Mrs. W. L. Nodder and Mr. Nodder in Ocala, Fla., and her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Bloss and son, Steve, in Miami, Fla.

The Elm Grove Baptist Church Women's Missionary Society will have a book study taught by Mrs. Charles Burken at ten a.m.

The Story Hour will be held at the Murray-Calloway County Library at three p.m.

Thursday, August 24

The Annie Armstrong Circle of the Hazel Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Prudye Adams at seven p.m. Mrs. Mary Turnbow will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Frances Dalley will teach part of the book, "The Holy Spirit in Missions".

Saturday, August 26

The Oaks Country Club will have a steak dinner at the club. It was previously scheduled for August 19. Call the pro shop or Mrs. Clifton Cochran for further on the golf.

Rehearsal Dinner Held At Triangle

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McKee of Milan, Tenn., entertained with a dinner following the wedding rehearsal of their son, Frank David McKee and Miss Sheri Jones on Saturday evening at the private dining room of the Triangle Inn in Murray.

The dinner was served after the rehearsal at the Grace Episcopal Church, Paducah.

An arrangement of mums was used to adorn the table and covers were laid for twenty-five persons. Following the dinner Miss Karen McKee entertained with vocal selections and accompanied herself on the guitar.
